

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE*RS22688

This bill repeals provisions of state law preventing the garnishment, or execution of a final judgment against monies owed to an elected official of the State of Idaho. The bill repeals this privileged treatment and leaves all other aspects of the statute intact. The effect of this legislation is to treat all citizens of the state the same.

FISCAL NOTE

The bill will avoid any costs or special accommodation for elective officials, and it allows civil execution of judgments or garnishments against elected officials. There are no fiscal impacts to the general fund or to local government.
